

i have been listening to k-love for the last 3 years of my life. its message through music has given me the strength i needed in my trying times. its value cannot be measured in any type monetarily.thanks to their music and prayer line i personally have witnessed its positive and profound affect. please donot displace it by an lpfm broadcaster providing other programing.